You are under arrest for an offense arising out of or related to alleged to have been committed while you were operating a motor vehicle in a public place or a watercraft, while intoxicated, or an offense under Section 106.041, Alcoholic Beverage Code. You are being asked to give a specimen of your blood or urine. The specimen will be analyzed to determine the alcohol concentration or the presence of a controlled substance, drug, dangerous drug, or other substance in your body.

If you refuse to give the specimen, that refusal may be admissible in a subsequent prosecution. Your license, permit or privilege to operate a motor vehicle will be suspended or denied for not less than 180 days, whether or not you are subsequently prosecuted for this offense.

If you refuse to submit to the taking of a specimen, the officer may apply for a warrant authorizing a specimen to be taken from you.

If you are 21 years of age or older and subject to the taking of a specimen and an analysis of the specimen shows that you have an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more, your license, permit or privilege to operate a motor vehicle will be suspended or denied for not less than 180 days, whether or not you are subsequently prosecuted for this offense.

If you are younger than 21 years of age and have any detectable amount of alcohol in your system, your license, permit or privilege to operate a motor vehicle will be suspended or denied for not less than 180 days. However, if you submit to the taking of a specimen and an analysis of the specimen shows that you have an alcohol concentration of less than 0.08, you may be subject to criminal penalties more severe than those provided for under Chapter 49, Penal Code.

If you were operating a motor vehicle and you refuse to give the specimen or provide a specimen that shows you have an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more, you may be disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle for a period of not less than one year.

You may request a hearing on the suspension or denial. This request must be received by the Texas Department of Public Safety at its headquarters in Austin, Texas, no later than 15 days after you receive or are presented to have received notice of suspension or denial. This request can be made by written demand, fax, or other form prescribed by the Department.

I certify that I have informed you both orally and in writing of the consequences of refusing to submit to the taking of a specimen or providing a specimen. I have provided you with a complete and true copy of this statutory warning.

I am now requesting a specimen of your

B. USPS Action

- USPS EMPLOYEE: Please scan upon pickup or receipt of mail. Leave form with customer or in customer's mail receptacle. Employee verifies the package volume count on the Package Pickup Carrier Manifest.
 - If the volume on the manifest matches the volume being collected from the customer, the employee should make the 1: YES selection by pressing the number 1 on the keypad of the handheld scanner, or on the keyboard of the POS ONE terminal.
 - If the volume on the manifest does not match the volume being collected from the customer, the employee should make the 2: NO selection. The mail should still be collected and dispatched as normal.
